2. A minimum of two (2) years of full-time related work experience in higher education required. Two years of experience in instructional design required. Four (4) semesters of teaching at least one course per semester in an online setting required. Experience with Blackboard Learn and Instructure Canvas preferred.
3. Certifications: Quality Matters Certifications, instructional design certifications, and/or online teaching certifications preferred.

Job Functions:

The purpose of this position is to collaborate with faculty and staff in a variety of disciplines to develop and deploy engaging distance learning courses based on up-to-date theory and practice, that align instructional content and assessments with course objectives and learning outcomes, facilitate ease of use, promote regular and substantive interaction, and meet accessibility standards through attention to universal design. This position reports to the Associate Dean of Distance Education and Developmental Education. The Instructional Design Specialist will engage in wide-ranging activities at each of the college's four campuses, promoting student success through excellence in teaching. The employee will:

1. Communicate proactively and effectively with content experts in numerous fields who have varying levels of experience utilizing instructional technology and instructional design methodology.
2. Participate in institution evaluation and review processes for new and existing online courses and hybrid/blended courses.
3. Write recommendations and focused plans of action that can be implemented by faculty to improve course engagement, usability, content alignment, and accessibility.
4. Provide instruction to faculty in the effective use of instructional design methodologies and the associated benefits to different levels or types of learners.
5. Provide instruction to faculty in the effective use of instructional technologies that include learning management systems, lecture capture platforms, web conference platforms, MS Office Apps, Office 365 Cloud resources, multimedia authoring/editing tools, publisher provided instructional resources, open educational resources, remote proctoring systems, accessibility auditing tools, and assistive technologies.
6. Assist in needs analysis, identifying specific gaps in skills, knowledge, information, performance, and/or resources that can be closed by implementing solution based on instructional design or instructional technology.
7. Conduct on-campus and online workshops, webinars, and individual help sessions that promote excellence in teaching in all modes of course delivery.
8. Conduct ongoing research of pedagogical and technological best-practices for Internet based instruction, advising the Associate Dean of trends and developments that could produce instructional improvements.
9. Assist the Associate Dean with planning documents and with compliance documentation related to SACSOC, NC-SARA, DOE, and ADA regulations for Distance Education.
10. Serve as a member of the Distance Education Program Committee.
11. Comply with ACCS and College policies, as well as state and federal laws
12. Perform other related job duties as assigned.

Salary: $67,000.00 to $72,000.00 based on ACCS Board of Trustees Salary Schedule C-3 and experience.

Application Deadline: 4:30 p.m., July 17, 2020

Application Procedure: A complete application packet consists of:

1. A completed Jefferson State Community College application specific to this position.
2. Current resume.
3. Transcripts (unofficial copies will be accepted before the deadline, but official transcripts must be on file before an offer of employment). Transcripts must include conferred or awarded date.
4. Work experience verification in writing from your current and/or previous employer(s) confirming the required level of experience as stated in the "Minimum Qualifications" section. Verification should include dates of employment and position title(s). Upon request from the applicant, work experience verification from dates from current employer only may be delayed until an official offer of employment. Request must be made in the form of a statement on a separate document. If applicant delays verification from current employer and it does not cover required level of experience as stated in the "Minimum Qualification" section, verification from previous employer(s) required. Remember that the work experience verification completion is your responsibility. Please visit <http://jeffersonstate.edu/about-jscc/human-resources/work-experience-verification/> (For clarification, please contact Human Resources).
