

Sarah's Story

One day, Sarah decided to go to college and to work towards the educational part of the CDA and receive college credit for her studies at the same time. She chose Jefferson State Community College's Child Development Program

And she did!!

Realizing CDA was a good FIRST step, Sarah then decided to continue her education at Jeff State to obtain her Associate degree.

Sarah soon realized she wanted to continue her education towards a Bachelor degree. With a good transfer option, Sarah chose to continue her education at the University of Alabama—CHES.

And she did!!
