

TECTA America

Now Hiring

Part time Business Development - National Construction company is seeking an individual to make personal first contacts with potential customers. This is an entry level position in our Marketing and sales department. This could be your first job that leads to career long employment. You will start as an hourly employee and opportunities exist to become a Service Sales Representative that is compensated thru salary, car allowance, commission and bonus. The Service Sales representative position also is illegible for Health, dental, vision, life and 401k. Outgoing personality, desire to be a winner, self motivated and clear communication skills, and reliable transportation are required.

Send an email of your interest to jholt@tectaamerica.com.