

AUBURN UNIVERSITY HARRIS EARLY LEARNING CENTER

Located in downtown Birmingham, Alabama, Harris Early Learning Center is a play-based child development center that promotes the holistic development of the child through hands-on learning opportunities. Students are provided authentic learning through immersive experiences and thematic units. We serve students from 6 weeks to Pre-K.

Open Positions

- Classroom Teacher
- Floater/Substitute Teacher
- Administrative Assistant
- Part-Time Floaters/Substitute Teachers

Benefits of Employment:

- Competitive salary; Auburn recently initiated a minimum hiring rate of $14.50. Teacher salaries are calculated by years of experience and degrees obtained.
- Auburn University benefits that include health insurance, tuition benefits, retirement plans, and much more!
- Reduced tuition at Harris Early Learning Center for your own children.
- Professional development opportunities unique to a University-owned center.
- A supportive, team-oriented environment.
- Opportunity and autonomy to implement best practice for students.

For more information about employment opportunities:

Director Dr. Mariah Weber: Mariah.Weber@auburn.edu

Director Diana Blackwell: Dblackwell@auburn.edu

Website: <https://www.harriselc.org> Phone: 205-252-5060

Auburn University Benefits:

http://www.auburn.edu/administration/human_resources/benefits/

Applications:

Teacher/Substitute Teacher: <https://www.auemployment.com/postings/25021>

Part-Time Substitute Teacher: <https://www.auemployment.com/postings/24177>

Administrative Assistant: <https://www.auemployment.com/postings/25982>