GENERAL CONDITIONS AND INSTRUCTIONS

1. Submissions must be received prior to the 15th of each month to be considered for scheduling the following month.
2. All information shall be submitted in ink, typewritten or computer generated in the appropriate space on the forms. An authorized company representative must sign in ink.
3. Jefferson State Community College reserves the right to reject any Submissions, or any part thereof, and to waive any technicality in the best interest of the Institute. Scheduling will be awarded in a manner which appears to be in the best interest of Jefferson State Community College. Jefferson State may schedule multiple trucks in a month.
4. This proposal is to be made without connections with any other person, company, or parties making a proposal and is to be in all respects fair and in good faith, without collusion or fraud.
5. The responsibility of determining the acceptability of any products offered rests solely with Jefferson State Community College.
6. Complete submissions will require a copy of General Liability (umbrella) insurance. The copy must show amount limits for automobile, workmen's compensation, etc. (applicable for the delivery of materials, supplies, etc.)
7. Food truck shall, at its sole expense, procure and keep in effect all necessary permits and licenses required for its performance of the requested work or service.
8. Complete Submissions must provide a copy of current state, county or city business license, general contractor's license or applicable license as required by law.
9. Complete Submissions will be required to complete the Alabama Immigration Law Compliance Documents. The Alabama Immigration Law Compliance Documents are included in the bid proposal.
10. Food trucks desiring further information or interpretation of plans or specifications must make requests in writing to Lisa Kimble, Institutional Effectiveness, 2601 Carson Road, Birmingham, AL 35215-3098.
11. Jefferson State Community College may cancel food trucks at any time.
12. Continued scheduling will be contingent upon the College's inspection of, and satisfaction of services provided.
13. Notwithstanding any other provision in this Agreement, the parties acknowledge and agree that the terms and commitments contained herein shall not constitute a debt of the State of Alabama in violation of Section 213 of the Constitution of Alabama of 1901, as amended by Amendment No. 26.
14. It is further agreed that if any provision of this Agreement shall contravene any statute of Constitutional provision, either now in effect of which may be enacted during the term of this Agreement, then the conflicting provision of the Agreement shall be deemed null and void.
15. The vendor acknowledges and agrees that its sole and exclusive remedy for any monetary claim or any claim for which Jefferson State Community College has sovereign immunity that may arise from or relate to this Agreement is to file a claim with the Board of Adjustment of the State of Alabama. Any claim for equitable relief or for which Jefferson State Community College does not have sovereign immunity shall be brought exclusively in the appropriate state or federal court situated in and/or covering Jefferson County, Alabama.
16. This Agreement shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of Alabama without giving effect to any choice or conflict-of-law provisions or rules (whether of the State of Alabama or any other jurisdiction) that would cause the application of the laws of any jurisdiction other than those of the State of Alabama.
17. These terms and conditions shall supersede any contrary language in any agreement entered into by the parties. All terms shall be reduced to writing and will not rely on any oral terms, nor shall any oral terms or agreement be incorporated herein.
18. As an entity of the State of Alabama, the parties recognize and agree that Jefferson State Community College cannot and will not agree to indemnify any party to a contract resulting from this process.
19. In accordance with the recommendations of the Governor and the Attorney General of the State of Alabama, the parties shall consider settling all disputes arising from or related to this agreement by using appropriate forms of non-binding alternative dispute resolution.
20. In the event of proration of the fund from which payment under which this agreement is to be made, the agreement will be subject to termination.
21. In compliance with Act 2016-312, the contractor hereby certifies that it is not currently engaged in, and will not engage in, the boycott of a person or an entity based in or doing business with a jurisdiction with which this state can enjoy open trade.

Personal Property or Contractual Services

Section 41-16-57 of the Alabama Code Provides as Follows:

(b) The awarding authority in the purchase of or contract for personal property or contractual services shall give preference, provided there is no sacrifice or loss in price or quality, to commodities produced in Alabama or sold by Alabama persons, firms, or corporations. Notwithstanding the foregoing, no county official, county commission, school board, city council or city councilmen, or other public official, state board, or state agency charged with the letting of contracts or purchase of materials for the construction, modification, alteration, or repair of any publicly owned facility may specify the use of materials or systems by a sole source, unless:

(1) The governmental body can document to the satisfaction of the State of Alabama Building Commission that the sole source product or service is of an indispensable nature, all other viable alternatives have been explored, and it has been determined that only this product or service will fulfill the function for which the product is needed. Frivolous features will not be considered.

(2) The sole source specification has been recommended by the architect or engineer of record and who also documents that there is no other product available and that the use of the requirement is of an indispensable nature and why.

(3) All information substantiating the use of a sole source specification is documented in writing and is filed into the project file.
