

Lead Teacher – Alabama First Class Pre-K

Alabama Stem Education

Qualifications

Required Department Minimum Qualifications: Bachelor's degree in early childhood education, human development and family studies, or special education and two (2) years of experience in classroom (birth to 3rd grade)

Skills and Knowledge: Ability to plan and implement high-quality, developmentally appropriate child-centered curriculum

Ability to develop programming consistent with First Class Pre-K Program grant requirements and developmentally appropriate practices as defined by the National Association for the Education of Young Children (NAEYC)

Understanding of the organization of confidential documents, as well as effective communication, both written and verbal, is required

Ability to work with diverse populations and understanding of utilizing a strength's-based approach

Understanding of supervisory skills and/or mentoring skills

Alabama Class BS or BA Early Childhood Certification (Birth –3rd grade)

Five (5) years of early childhood teaching and management experience to include some work with birth through five year-olds

Experience with developmentally appropriate, play-based curriculum, authentic assessment, and early childhood center oversight

Job Summary:

The Teacher is responsible for developing curriculum and lesson plans, and presenting those lessons to their students, individually or in groups

Tracks the progress of students and creates reports to inform parents of the progress

The Teacher may work with graduate students and faculty to implement research projects, or supervise interns and practica students

Additional Department Summary: The Early Learning Initiative Lead Teacher will develop and implement a model pre-kindergarten program in partnership with an Auxiliary Teacher to support overall development based on the strengths, needs, and interests of each child

Plans and implements developmentally appropriate activities for children in line with the First Class Pre-K Program and the National Association for the Education of Young Children (NAEYC)

Ensures child assessment data is utilized through daily documentation

Works with faculty and undergraduate/graduate students in the College of Education

Models teaching practices for early educators

Develops and maintains strong connections with families

Salary: $43,000.00 per year

To Apply: Send resume to:

alabamastemeducatiion@gmail.com