THE PROGRAM:

Jefferson State's Child Development Associate Degree program (CDP) is the first accredited program in Alabama under The National Association of the Education of Young Children (NAEYC). For more than 45 years, Jefferson State's CDP has been the leader in providing Child Development education. Classes are offered online with live classrooms and also recorded to accommodate every student. Current and prospective students are able to complete their education and career goals with flexibility and ongoing support through various forms of technology while also receiving education that aligns with the NAEYC standards and Alabama Quality Rating and Improvement System (QRIS).
