

The LRY Media Group (LRY) has been hired by Major League Baseball (MLB) to assist with recruiting members of the Birmingham community to fill paid positions for the Tribute to the Negro Leagues games at Rickwood Field that will take place June 18-20, 2024.

MLB is looking to hire individuals for various positions crucial to the success of the event. We believe that community involvement is vital to the success of such a significant occasion, and we would like to make sure that your organization has a chance to apply.

MLB is hiring for the following positions:

1. Ticket Takers
2. Golf Cart Drivers
3. Informational Guides/Queue Line Assistants
4. Ushers
5. Green/Sustainability Teams
6. VIP Attendants

We're looking for enthusiastic and reliable individuals. No prior experience is necessary, as training will be provided for all positions.

This is a fantastic opportunity to be part of a historic event and contribute to its success while gaining valuable experience and making meaningful connections within the community.
