

YWCA Central Alabama is dedicated to empowering women, and dignity for all. YWCA Central Alabama's vision is to create a more caring community. We work every day to make a positive change in the lives of individuals and the community.

Address: 309 23rd St N Birmingham AL 35203

Phone: 205-322-9922

The YWCA Central Alabama is seeking a Child Development Teachers. This dedicated and committed professional will assist with providing high quality learning environment for our child development programs, which serve homeless and low-income children between birth and five years of age.

Primary Responsibilities:

- Create and implement developmentally appropriate activities.
- Create a positive home-classroom connection by maintaining appropriate ongoing communication with parents.
- Keep accurate records on children as required by program: lesson plans, assessment, NAEYC documentation, attendance, USDA, etc.
- Maintain classroom discipline using behavioral management techniques: positive reinforcement, praise, encouragement and redirection.
- Organize classroom and maintain a safe and healthy learning environment: both indoors and outdoors.
- Provide constant supervision of all children during all activities.
- Assist with development of instructional classroom materials.
- Maintain a personal development plan for growth in the field of child development.
- Maintain confidentiality about staff, children and parents.
- Perform all other duties deemed necessary for the smooth operation of the program and the agency, as directed by the Senior Director of Child Care, Director of YWCA Child Care, CPO of the YWCA, or CEO of the YWCA.

Qualifications:

- Certificate with Child Development Association or higher degree in related field. Bachelor's degree preferred.
- Teaching or training experience preferred.

The YWCA offers a very competitive benefit package to include: medical, dental, paid holidays, vacation, 403b Check us out on the YWCABHAM.ORG or Indeed.com EEOC